

Do You Have the Personality to Run Your Own Whimsy Franchise?

Take this fun quiz and FIND OUT!

Lots of people dream of starting and running their own business, but not everyone has what it takes to move beyond dreaming.

Do you want to know if you have the characteristics it takes to be a successful entrepreneur? Answer the following 8 questions to find out.

Grab a piece of paper and jot down your answers.

1. When everything seems to be stacked against you, do you tend to:

A- Sit down and write out all of the pros and cons to help you decide what to do next.

B- Keep moving forward because you have faith that all things will work out for the best and action brings clarity every time.

C- Cut your losses, save yourself, and change directions before things get worse.

2. Which of the following describes you:

A- You know you can do hard things since you have certainly done them before. You are always telling others that there is nothing you cannot do if you put your mind to it.

B- You are very humble and would never brag about your abilities.

C- You have a realistic view of your capabilities and are pretty certain you can complete any task that is before you.

3. Which of the following best describes you:

A- You love to take the time to plan for all the details. When someone tries to introduce changes, you don't want them coming at the last-minute or at all for that matter. You need time to process changes and adjust your plans.

B- You live in a state of spontaneity and don't like making plans because change is certain.

C- You know you need to make plans, but you remain flexible because you know that things can change, and you want to be able to pivot and adjust when needed.

4. We all go through difficulties and have faced hard times in our lives. Some of us like to take more time to reflect and proceed with caution after a crisis, while others seem to keep running as if nothing happened. Are you more likely to:

A- Need lots of time to fully recover and reflect before you can even know if you are ready to move again

B- Let problems roll off like water on a duck's back and keep moving ahead because you know that life happens.

C- Spend the next 24 hours to reflect, but never stop working and surge forward.

5. When it comes to your most ideal work environment, you like to:

A- Hire good people and then get out of their way to allow them to do all the work.

B- Roll up your sleeves and do the job yourself. You know your level of skill and determination so you know you can get the job done..

C- Surround yourself with great people that work hard but also who have the potential to learn and develop into leaders themselves. You love an environment where people are celebrated and where you roll your sleeves up and show your team you are all in it together.

6. There are always more things to do in a day than one can usually accomplish. When you are staring at 87 things that need to be done, do you:

A- Stay focused on completing one task before taking on the next.

B- Always scan your horizon for tasks you can combine and conquer together.

C- Start lots of projects but get distracted by shiny objects. Hey did someone just like your Instagram post?

7. You have a huge order that a customer is coming to pick up in 4 hours and your mixer breaks. Do you:

A- Get your roll of pink duct tape and a bobby pin...you can fix anything.

B- Call on your network. Someone knows someone who can fix this.

C- Call the customer, apologize and tell them you simply can't get the order out.

8. When it comes to decision making you like to:

A- Ask others around you for their input and get a consensus before moving forward.

B- Gather facts and analyze the data before jumping ahead.

C- Look at the options in front of you and make a decision. You don't always have all the facts but you like to pick one to start. You can always change directions later if needed.

Simply click the button below and let us know where you'd like the answers sent, we will wave our magic wand and they will be sent to you right away!

Let's see if you are ready to turn that dream of yours into a business! And if you are interested in a Whimsy franchise opportunity, contact us today and let's work together to bring more happiness to the world...one cookie at a time!

A yellow starburst graphic with a long, thin tail and several smaller stars trailing behind it, located on the left side of the bottom section.

SEND ME THE ANSWERS

